

This Week at Copper

February 5 - 11

Welcome to Copper,

Please enjoy all of Copper's great activities, as well as the US Snowboarding Revolution Tour, All You Can Eat Sushi, Woodward at Copper, Super Bowl Sunday Specials, and much more.

US Snowboarding Revolution Tour, Feb. 6 - 10

The U.S. Snowboarding Revolution Tour is the top junior event tour in the country. The event brings together athletes from across the country to identify the top juniors. Halfpipe and slopestyle athletes 13-and-older (Boardercross 15-and-older) compete together in an open-class event. The Revolution Tour is also used to qualify athletes for World Juniors, U.S. Open, U.S. World Cup, USASA Nationals and Project Gold camps. www.ussnowboarding.com.

Coca-Cola Tubing Hill

Just plain fun. Kick off your skis or snowboard and slide down the mountain in a different way. The Coca-Cola Tubing Hill is located in the East Village at the base of the Super Bee lift. Copper's Tubing Hill is divided into five lanes, giving each guest the freedom to enjoy the tubing hill at their own pace. Reservations are highly recommended. Visit any Guest Services location to "Tube it up." NOTE: The Tubing hill is closed on Wednesdays.

Kids in the Kitchen at Pizza Carlo

Copper is inviting the Kids into their Kitchen. Monday through Thursday evenings, Pizza Carlo will host families and let the kids sit at the pizza bar and create the pizza of their dreams. Copper's chefs will provide the dough and the "junior chefs" will add the toppings of their choice to invent their family's pizza, including the favorite - the kid-approved Dessert Pizza. For more info, or to reserve your spot, please stop by Pizza Carlo, located in the Village at Copper, or call 970.968.3112.

Ski or Ride with a U.S. Forest Service Ranger, every Friday at 11 a.m.

Friendly and knowledgeable volunteer rangers will educate skiers and snowboarders about the fascinating cultural and natural history of Summit County and the White River National Forest. Requirements: intermediate skiing/snowboarding ability, a lift ticket and proper ski/board equipment. Meet at 11 a.m. at the top of the Timberline Lift. Tours are about one hour in duration. For more information, call 970.262.3449.

Woodward at Copper Winter Camp Days

The Winter Camp Day is the best way to experience Woodward at Copper in the winter and will utilize the indoor features in The Barn as well as Copper's on-mountain park and pipe features. A Winter Camp Day includes setting up a goal for the day ("I want to learn how to do a Rodeo"), fully coached morning and afternoon sessions in the Barn and on the snow in Copper's nationally recognized terrain parks, lunch, and a lift ticket.

Helmets are required for all guests. Winter Camp Days are offered to anyone 8-yrs-and-up who are comfortable skiing/riding on intermediate terrain or higher, every Fri/Sat/Sun/Mon through April 18. A 5% multi-day discount applies.
